NOTES—First Sheet.

General and Revenue Secretariat. | Eh File No. 28 of 1914.

Serial No.

The following difficulties experienced in giving effect to G.O. No. G 4030-3, dt. 24.10.14, re the allocation of the existing cadre of the I.R.S into the two divisions newly sanctioned, are brought to notice

1. In all 75 appointments have been made in the 1st division, nine of which have been ordered to be treated as sub-probation, leaving 66 to be treated as permanent or probationary. This gives one appointment in excess of the sanctioned scale which is only 65.

This difficulty has since been avoided by the resignation of Mr. Govinda Rao B.A. B.L. from 1st Sept. 14. But orders are necessary as to how he is to be treated from 1st July to 31st August or the orders take effect from 1st July 14.

2. The orders are silent as to the permanent appointments of the nine men who are to be treated as sub-probation in the 1st Dn.

It would be necessary to show them as holding permanent appts
